1. Longwood reviewed the Invitation for Bids and Bid Form and reiterated the following:
   a. The deadline for submitting bids is Nov. 29, 2006 at 2pm and the bids will be opened on Nov. 30, 2006 at 2pm.
   b. The bidder must be a registered vendor in eVA to be awarded the contract.
   c. The Invitation for bid is available on Longwood’s website or on eVA’s website.
   d. The bidders must include the name of the project on the outside of the envelope.
   e. Longwood noted that they are not priority 1 for Fed Ex or UPS delivery and asked that the bidders take that into consideration if they intend to mail in their bids.
   f. The value for the base bid amount shall be written out and numerically written on the bid form.

2. Longwood encourages small business owners to be certified with the State of Virginia.

3. The will be no charge for the documents however, they must be returned to Longwood following the bid. They are available from Jane Crawley at Longwood University Procurement.

4. Longwood reviewed the scope of work for this project as follows:
   a. The bid documents are noted as Phase 1B however, these documents represent a larger scope of work than that which is being bid under this package. This package is limited to the backstop, the outfield netting, the chain link fence and gates and all their associated foundations.
   b. The concrete pads shown at the batting cages and tarp storage will be installed by others.
   c. The drainage shown on the drawings is currently under contract and should be complete by the time this contract is awarded. The dugouts shown on the drawings will be awarded under a separate contract. The contractor awarded this contract shall recognize that other contractors may be on-site during the same period of time.
   d. The protective netting shown on the front of the dugouts are not included in this scope of work.
   e. Longwood will provide surveying services to set the fence points.
   f. No access, including concrete trucks, will be permitted onto the field. All access shall be around the perimeter of the field.
   g. Demolition is not part of this contract.
